Your browser may allow you to disable existing cookies, block cookies automatically or notify you if you are receiving a cookie. To find out more about cookies, including how to see what cookies have been set, visit www.aboutcookies.org or www.allaboutcookies.org.

Please note, however, that if you delete cookies or refuse to accept them, you might not be able to use all of the features we offer, you may not be able to store your preferences, and some of our pages might not display properly.

4. Why Do We Collect Personal Data?

We collect information about you to administer the program service, to process transactions carried out using the service, to perform routine account maintenance, and to optimize the program.

In this context, your Personal Data may be used for various purposes, including:

- Supplying products and services that you have ordered/requested, including services that may display customized content and advertising;
- Informing you of any service-related message that may be relevant to the program services provided to you;
- Verifying that you are an authorized user for security purposes;
- Complying with our legal and regulatory obligations and assisting us with crime and fraud prevention (e.g., by checking your identity);
- Assisting you with any product or service enquiries, complaints or issues that may arise; • Analysing market and product reports, performing research and statistical analysis, and monitoring usage behavior to improve our technologies and services;
- Marketing our products and services generally;
- Informing you of any products and services offered by other companies that we think may be of interest to you, provided that you choose to receive this information; and
- Performing debt recovery and credit management, including making decisions about credit.

You have the opportunity to be sent information about related products and services by electronic mail or SMS from us and carefully selected third parties, for the purposes listed above. If you do not wish to receive such electronic mail or SMS, you may indicate so when you activate your Account. You also have the opportunity to opt out of receiving such messages by phoning Cardholder Services.

5. Who We Disclose It To

We may disclose your Personal Data to third parties as follows:

- to the affiliated payment processor, the Issuer, the card scheme and other third parties to process your transactions;
- to affiliates or service providers that assist us to provide you the program services;
- to affiliates, service providers and government entities with competent jurisdiction in order to comply with legal requirements (such as verifying your identity and complying with money laundering and counter-terrorism financing laws), to prevent, detect and remediate fraudulent transactions, and to investigate and remediate breaches of the program Terms and Conditions;
- to a person or entity indicated in a court order or legal or administrative process at a regulatory entity;
- to analytics and optimizer services that enable us to improve our program Website, Mobile App or WatchApp;
- to auditors pursuant to contractual or legally mandated audits of our systems and processes;
- to investors or acquirors of Rêv Europe pursuant to an investment in the company or the sale of the company or its assets; and
- to any third party for any other purpose which we disclose to you when you provide the information.

We will only pass on information about you as an individual to third parties located outside of the European Union in compliance with applicable law.

If you provide your consent, we may send you emails or other communications providing program updates or information about the program products/and services, including promotional offers relating to the program or from third parties. If you wish to unsubscribe, simply do so by selecting the unsubscribe link at the bottom of the email. We highlight that you are not able to unsubscribe from certain emails and communications that relate to the management of your account, including your transactions, account verification requests, or communications that are of a legal or technical nature.

Please take into account that the program website incorporates links to third party websites or services that are not governed by this Privacy Policy. We are not responsible for these parties' privacy practices.

6. Data Protection

Rêv Europe is registered in Ireland with the Data Protection Commissioner as a Data Controller in accordance with the provisions of the Data Protection Acts 1998, 2003 and 2018. More information can be found at www.dataprotection.ie.

The Issuer is registered in the UK with the Information Commissioner's Office and is subject to the Data Protection Act 2018.

Rêv Europe complies with the General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679 to the fullest extent applicable.

7. Retention of Information

Note that the retention period for Personal Data is subject to change as required by applicable law.

- Cookies are stored on a per-session basis to aid your navigation of the Website. Persistent cookies may be set to store display-related preferences. Depending on your browser, you may also be able to control cookie use by altering your browser settings.
- We retain Personal Data and transaction information for five (5) years from the date your account is closed, or for such period as required by applicable law.

8. Security

We have strict standards of security and confidentiality.

We provide you a password to access certain program services. Please do not share your password with anybody and please note that you are responsible for maintaining it confidential.

We use current technologies and business strategies and have implemented security systems and procedures to protect the integrity and privacy of your Personal Data. Although we will endeavor to protect your Personal Data from unauthorized access, disclosure, use or modification, we cannot guarantee its security or integrity. The transmission of Personal Data from you to us is at your own risk.

We limit the use of your Personal Data to those employees, agents or contractors who we believe have a legitimate business purpose to access your Personal Data. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with or exceed best practice standards to keep your Personal Data safe. We require companies working for us to protect your Personal Data and use it only to provide the services we ask them to perform for us.

9. Phishing

You may receive electronic communications claiming to be from us with a link to what appears to be our website, where you are prompted to enter your Personal Data and/or account details – a so-called “phishing” attempt. We will never send you any communication that requests you to provide your Personal Data or account information (e.g., Card number or PIN) via a reply or link in an electronic communication.

If you think you have received a fraudulent communication that looks like it is from us, please forward the entire email including the header and footer to dataprivacy@revworldwide.com and then delete it immediately.

10. Automated Decisions

Parts of the program website may automatically process your Personal Data for account administration, transaction monitoring, and billing purposes. Your Personal Data is not used to make automated decisions concerning credit.

11. Questions & Accessing and Updating Your Personal Information

You have the right to make questions or comments about this Privacy Policy, including the possibility of requesting a copy of any Personal Data that we hold about you as a Cardholder, and to have inaccuracies in that information corrected.

If you wish to make an access request you should follow the procedure below:

Apply in writing to the Data Privacy Officer at dataprivacy@revworldwide.com

- Your application should be marked “Data AccessRequest”.
- You should include as much detail as possible in order to help us identify you and locate all the Personal Data that we may hold (including names, addresses, date of birth, email address, mobile telephone number, etc.).

We will take all reasonable steps to verify your identity before issuing your data. While we will provide the information free of charge, we may charge a reasonable fee for unfounded or excessive requests to cover our costs for processing each request. We will provide you the information within 1 month from the date of your request, but we may incur in delays in responding to complex or numerous requests.

You also have the right to have any inaccurate information rectified or erased, to have Personal Data taken off a direct marketing or direct mailing list, and the right to complain to the Data Protection Information Commissioner. Should you discover that we hold inaccurate information about you, you may instruct us to correct that information. Your instruction must be in writing to the address outlined above. Your request will be dealt with as soon as practicable.

12. Updates to this Privacy Policy

We may modify this Privacy Policy from time to time and will always have the latest version available on the Website. As applicable, we will provide you notice of the changes via email, electronic communication or via the Account Centre.
